Warſaw, October 30.

THE Differences ſtill ſubſiſt between the Clergy and principal Nobility of this Kingdom, each labouring to ſupport their Pretenſions, though neither Side ſeem ſo very warm in the Diſputes as they were ſome Months ago. The Waters of the Viſtula are ſo low, that the Navigation of that River is greatly interrupted. The Tribunal of Petrikaw continues its Seſſion with great Succeſs, the principal Buſineſs thereof being already diſpatched. They write from Grodno, that they are at Work with Vigour in repairing the Damages they received by the late great Fire. We are informed by Letters received laſt Poſt from Kuhaw, a ſmall Town in the Palatinate of Sendomir, that a dreadful Fire broke out there on the 21ſt Inſtant, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that almoſt the whole Town was reduced to Aſhes.

Modena, Oct. 30. The Departure of the Duke our Sovereign, in order to take Poſſeſſion of the Government of Auſtrian Lombardy, is deferred till the Spring; and the Preparations that were making for that Journey are accordingly ſuſpended.

Florence, Nov. 2. Laſt Week M. Viviani, the Neapolitan Miniſter, returned here from Leghorn, after having received, from the Commander of the Neapolitan half Galleys, and conſigned over, in his own Name, to the Marquis Ginori, Governor of Leghorn, the Tuneſian Bark, with 30 Moors, as a Preſent to the Emperor; by whoſe Orders the ſaid Moors have been new cloath'd, and their Veſſel refitted, in order to be ſent, in his Imperial Majeſty's Name, to the Bey of Tunis. It is the general Opinion at Rome, that the Promotion of Cardinals will certainly take Place in the Courſe of the preſent Month.

Gotha, Nov. 3. The Hereditary Prince of Anſpach, who has been paſſing ſome Time at the Courts of Berlin, Brunſwick and Caſſel, arrived here a few Days ago, and was received with great Marks of Diſtinction by their Serene Highneſſes our Sovereigns.

Genoa, Nov. 5. The Articles for a general Capitulation, in Behalf of the Male-Contents, which were lately delivered to M. Grimaldi, being ſaid to be the ſame as had been delivered to M. Curſay, will not, it is ſuppoſed, be accepted by this Government. Letters from Baſtia of the 18th paſt adviſe, that the Death of Gaffori has occaſioned no ſmall Confuſion amongſt the Male-Contents, who immediately ſent out a Body of Men in Queſt of the Murderers; but as they had taken Refuge in Calvi, all their Houſes, and every Thing belonging to them, have been deſtroyed. It is thought the Death of this Chief may prove a favourable Circumſtance in the preſent Situation of Affairs, as he was the only Perſon who was againſt coming to Terms with the Republick. Six Days ago arrived the Dutcheſs of Parma from Antibes, with four French Galleys and two Xebeques, under the Command of M. de Crenay; the Town ſaluted him with ſeven Guns, and the Dutcheſs with 68. This Government appointed ſix Gentlemen and ſix Ladies to compliment the Dutcheſs, and to attend her during her Stay, which was three Days; and, at her Departure, the Town ſaluted her in the ſame Manner as on her Arrival.

Stockholm, Nov. 5. By the frequent Expreſſes that paſs between this Court and thoſe of Verſailles and Berlin, it is conjectured a Treaty is on the Carpet for ſtipulating the Number of Troops and Men of War each Court is to furniſh in Caſe of an Attack. The Queen, and the Princeſs of whom ſhe was lately delivered, are in perfect Health. The Chamberlain Count Panin, the Ruſſian Miniſter, has received an Expreſs from his Court, with Orders to demand ſome Subjects of the Ruſſian Nation, who have left their Country, and ſettled in the Territories of Sweden, without the Permiſſion of her Imperial Majeſty.

Poſnania, Nov. 7. We learn by our laſt Letters from the Ukraine, that a large Body of Heyducks have lately appeared upon the Frontiers of Podolia, and having penetrated into the Palatinate of Braclaw, pillaged ſeveral Villages, and afterwards afterwards ſet them on Fire. Upon the firſt Advice of theſe Outrages, a Detachment of the Crown Army was immediately ſent in Queſt of them, who meeting them in their Retreat, a general Skirmiſh enſued, in which a great Slaughter was made of thoſe common Plunderers, and moſt of the Booty retaken.

Vienna, Nov. 7. The Empreſs Queen has declared Prince Lichtenſtein to be General in Chief, or Captain General, of all her Armies, with the Authority of finally determining all Diſputes relating to Military Affairs; and her Imperial Majeſty has nominated the Generals Serbelloni, Purpurati, Radicati, and Gelhay, to aid and aſſiſt him, by Way of Council, in that important Poſt.

Hamburg, Nov. 12. A few Days ago two Couriers paſſed through this City from Stockholm, one for Paris, and the other for Berlin. The Levies for the Swediſh Regiments quartered in Pomerania, go on very ſucceſsfully, ſeveral Bodies of Recruits having lately marched from thence for Stralſund.

Frankfort, Nov. 13. The Auſtrian Officers continue to raiſe Recruits in this Neighbourhood, who are frequently marching off, in ſmall Bodies, in order to join their reſpective Regiments.

Berlin, Nov. 14. The Margrave of Brandebourg Bareith, accompanied by the Count de Broſe, Grand Marſhal of his Court, Baron de Freychapel, his Great Chamberlain, and M. de Putbus, one of the Gentlemen of his Bed-Chamber, arrived here on Wedneſday Night laſt. He was immediately conducted to the Apartments of Prince Henry; and the King appointed M. de Grumbkow, one of his Majeſty's Aids de Camp, to attend his Highneſs during his Stay at this Court. Yeſterday that Prince ſet out for Potsdam, where 'tis thought he will ſtay two or three Days before he returns Home. A new Edict is publiſhed here, promiſing all Foreign Merchants the free Liberty of trading in any of the Cities and Town of Pruſſia Royal, without any Hindrance or Moleſtation whatſoever.

Fontainbleau, Nov. 15. On Friday laſt the Count de Caſtillane, the Neapolitan Ambaſſador, arrived here, and the next Day had his firſt publick Audience of the King, to whom he delivered his Credential Letters; after which he was conducted to his Audiences of the Queen, the Dauphin, and the reſt of the Royal Family. The Counteſs de Noailles, who accompanied the Infanta Dutcheſs of Parma to Antibes, is returned here from thence, and has waited on their Majeſties with Letters from that Princeſs. The King has appointed the Abbe de Montmorency Laval, to be Biſhop of Orleans; the Abbe de Ailly, to be Biſhop of Chalons upon the Saone; and the Abbe de Broglie, to be Biſhop of Angouleme.

Paris, Nov. 18. The Departure of the Court from Fontainbleau, was laſt Thurſday fixed for To-morrow; but as Madame Victoire is ſince taken ill, and been blooded twice, and as it is greatly apprehended ſhe will have the Small Pox, in that Caſe it is thought his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will ſtay at Fontainbleau ſix Weeks longer. A Letter de Cachet is ſent, by the King's Order, to each of the Members of the Great Chamber of the Parliament, baniſhing them from Pontoiſe to Soiſſons, where they are to remain till further Orders.

Hague, Nov. 20. The uſual Summonſes are ſent to the reſpective Cities and Towns of theſe Provinces, for an Aſſembly of our Lords the States of Holland, on the 28th Inſtant, the Points, upon which they are to deliberate, being already ſettled.
